May Byrne will be a sad loss to the community

THE death took place recently of May Byrne (née Troy), Coolbawn Lower, Aughrim, aged 93 years. Her husband Denis predeceased her by many years. May was a quiet, unassuming woman. Her family and friends will remember here for her quick wit and a great sense of humour. She was known as a great wife and mother who loved her family. She was grandmother to county footballer Alan Byrne. May will be a sad loss to her community. A very large crowd was present at her funeral Mass in St Brigid's Church, Annacurra. Fr J Hamill, PP, was celebrant. Burial took place afterwards to Annacurra Cemetery. Sympathy is extended to sons Donal and Christy, daughters Kathleen and Celia, grandchildren, extended family, relatives and friends.

NEW EXTENSION
The new extension to the school of the Sacred Heart was performed recently. It was blessed by Fr Barry, Aughrim. Past pupils and former teachers were among those who attended.

ANNUAL MEETING
The AGM of the Annacurra Camogie Club was recently held in the community hall, Annacurra. Chairperson Kathleen McAllister was re-elected. Hopefully, 2012 will again be a good year for the club.

Dráma Gaeilge in Amharclann na Mainistreach

Tá blianta fada ann ó léiríodh dráma Gaeilge ins an amharclann náisiúnta, Amharclann na Mainistreach ach tiocfaidh athrú ar sin roimh dheireadh na bliana. Léireoidh an comhlacht drámaíochta, Fíbín Teoranta, i gcomhcheangail leis an amharclann náisiúnta dráma nua ar Stáitse na Péacóige ó 6-10 Nollaig. Sa dráma dar teideal Sétanta, scríofa agus faoi stiúr Paul Mercier, déanann Fíbín iniúchadh ar an sochaí nua-aimseartha, le hinspioráid ón laoch miotaseolaíoch, Sétanta, ag úsáid teicnící ilmheánach, puipeadóireacht agus mascanna. Is athchóiriú comhaimseartha an dráma atá bunaithe ar shean-scéal ó na Fianna. Is léiriúchán stairiúil é Setanta i gcúrsaí drámaíocht na Gaeilge.
